

News Advisory

Contact: Corinne Winter (408) 806 8582
Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition

Bicycling Mayor, Supervisor, Council Members and CEOs! Bike to Work Day is Thursday May 17

Elected officials show their support of Bike to Work Day by donning their cycling attire and riding in to City Hall the morning of Bike to Work Day.

- Who: Chuck Reed, Mayor, City of San Jose
Liccardo, Oliverio, and Constant, Council Members, City of San Jose
Ken Yeager, MTC Commissioner and County Supervisor
Carl Guardino, CEO, Silicon Valley Leadership Group
Shelley Doran, VP, Webcor Builders
Marshall Case, VP, Finance and Operations, Government Program
Mr. Roadshow, columnist, San Jose Mercury News
Corinne Winter, ED, Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition
John Brazil, Bicycle and Pedestrian Coordinator, City of San Jose
- What: VIP ride and press conference
- When Thursday, May 17, 2007 8:00-8:40 am
- Where 8:00 am: VIP ride begins from Diridon Caltrain Station down San Fernando bike lanes
8:05 am: Great photos available of VIP riders bicycling past community energizer station at MLK library, 4th and San Fernando
8:10 am: VIP Speakers at San Jose City Hall Plaza
8:30 am: Individual interviews

On Thursday, May 17, organizers expect up to 100,000 Bay Area commuters to bike to work as part of the Bay Area's 13th Annual Bike to Work Day. Over 20,000 of these commuters will be biking in Santa Clara County! Join us to interview elected officials and CEOs, as well as the everyday cyclist!

For general information on Bike to Work Day, please visit the Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition website, svbcbikes.org.